Just Purchased on Fasig-Tipton Digital for $40,000
Offering 10 Shares at $4,000 each

Whether you are new to the world of Breeding Partnerships, or a veteran of broodmare ownership but need to upgrade, here's your ticket to commercial Kentucky stallions: Maryland-bred racemare RESPONSE TIME --- a tough-as-hickory sound campaigner who won or placed in four stakes, earned just shy of $500,000 in purses, and who started 33 times---winning on dirt, grass, and mud.

Country Life purchased RESPONSE TIME for $40,000 this week out of the Digital Fasig-Tipton December sale (see her catalog page and video here). We are syndicating her into 10 shares at $4,000 each. There is NO MARKUP from her auction price. The RESPONSE TIME LLC will officially begin on January 1, 2025. Monthly board expenses for a 10% interest in the RESPONSE TIME LLC will run between $300-$400 (Insurance, veterinary fees, vanning, etc., are billed as incurred and are included in that monthly estimate). Stud fees are payable on a Live Foal basis.

RESPONSE TIME raced locally for trainer Hamilton Smith and owner Mens Grille Racing, who bought her at the 2020 Fasig-Tipton Spring 2-Year-Old sale at Timonium for $100,000. Carrying the silks of Mens Grille, RESPONSE TIME never disappointed. We studied her Thoro-Manager Speed Numbers, and she ran spectacular "7's," three "8's," and four "9's." That's smoking-hot. She won the $100,000 Timonium Distaff Stakes and were it not for a *Florida-sired runner in the 2023 renewal of the $100,000 Maryland Million Distaff, she would have captured that prestigious race as well. (*INTREPID DAYDREAM defeated her in the Distaff as well as in the $75,000 Politely Stakes.)

Consider the quality of RESPONSE TIME's competition. In the Timonium Distaff, for example, she defeated runner-up Malibu Beauty (earnings of $774,699) and 1-2 favorite PRINCESS KOKACHIN (earnings of $510,720). In the Filly-and-Mare division in Maryland, you better have on your runnin' shoes if you wanna win. We have attached Race Replay links to her win in the Distaff, in which she ran an "8," and to her stellar performance in a $70,000 Laurel allowance, in which she sprinted to a 3-length win while running a career-best "7."

Country Life extends its gratitude to stalwart Maryland racehorse owners Mens Grille, the nom-de-course of owners Dave and Lori Hughes. Their careful campaigning of RESPONSE TIME extended her productive racing career. As you can see from the linked video from the Fasig sale, RESPONSE TIME is gracefully transitioning from formidable racemare to beautiful broodmare.

This latest Breeding Partnership acquisition is a full-circle story: RESPONSE TIME was bred in the name of Country Life Farm. We owned her dam, DOMINUS EFFECT, who we bred to our War Front stallion MOSLER to get RESPONSE TIME. DOMINUS EFFECT is a daughter of the Danzig mare DANZIG CELTIC, who was purchased by B. Wayne Hughes for $1,050,000 as a Keeneland yearling. RESPONSE TIME thus carries the influences of the brilliant speed sire DANZIG through her sire MOSLER and her dam.

Fast mares make fast foals, and that is our goal with RESPONSE TIME. She is presently in Lexington, Kentucky, under lights, preparing for the February 2025 opening of breeding sheds. We have not selected a stallion for her; that will be a Partnership decision very soon. However, we are "nicking" her with some of the most exciting sires in the Bluegrass. Our bloodstock advisor in Kentucky, John Stuart, has evaluated her and said two things stand out from a pedigree perspective. He thinks the reason she was so good as a racehorse was because she was inbred to Danzig 3x3, and that the best horse in the immediate family is by Into Mischief (G2 winner Lane Way) so that sire line could work with her. Uncle Mo or Tapit-line stallions look strong for her as well. The plan is to breed commercial yearlings from her, aiming for select summer sales.

As the Maryland horse industry begins its investment of $400-million in improvements, including the rebuild of historic Pimlico, and with this week's announcement of a $3-million marketing effort based around the 150th running of the Preakness this spring, this is the time to set the table for the future. Factor in the resurgence of racing in Virginia at Colonial Downs, and we feel that Country Life's innovative Racing and Breeding Partnerships position us for success in the coming years.

Grab a $4,000 share in RESPONSE TIME in time to be a part of the future of racing and breeding in the Mid-Atlantic. Give us a call or send an email before she's sold out:

TROUVILLE SOLD OUT

The allure of being a part of a commercial Breeding Partnership that may sell yearlings at Saratoga in Augusts to come, or at Keeneland in Septembers to come, drew 10 excellent partners together in the mare TROUVILLE whom we bought at Keeneland this past November.

A 7-year-old, California stakes-placed-earner of $298,237, TROUVILLE joined the Country Life Breeding Partnership band when she was purchased, in foal to Eclipse Award Champion 2022 Two-Year-Old colt FORTE, for $115,000. We sold 10 Shares at NO MARKUP for $11,500 each. With great appreciation, we thank our partners in the new TROUVILLE LLC:

Peter Bloom, CT
Denise Burbary-Muston, MI
Tim Burr, MA
John & Marcia Courson, AZ
Jonathan Johnson, CT
Tom Knapp, MD
David Nathans, NC
David & Diana Sedney, VA

AUDIBLY WINS!

November was a good month for our racing partnerships, with homebred filly Ariel Moon winning on the 8th at Laurel and Audibly getting it done in dramatic late-running fashion at Laurel on Thanksgiving Day, 11/28. Ridden by veteran jockey Horacio Karamanos, the daughter of Audible rallied late down the center of the track to catch the even money favorite at the wire for a dead heat win.

Congratulations to our partners in this 3-year-old filly: Randy Blurton, Carol Brdecka, Cape Fear Thoroughbreds, Ed Furman, Guidera-McKenney Equine LLC, George Sheehan and Jim & Carol Tanzola.
